

Please keep current rules in place. The public interest should be served, not that of corporations. The promises of benefit to the public always turn out to be false in cases that ultimately give more power to the corporations.